

SUNG BY THE AMERICAN TROOPS

WHEN WE WIND UP THE WATCH ON THE RHINE

BY
GORDON V. THOMPSON AND WILLIAM DAVIS

THOMPSON PUBLISHING COMPANY
NEW YORK — TORONTO

When we Wind up the Watch on the Rhine

GORDON V. THOMPSON
and WILLIAM DAVIS

PIANO

VOICE

Vamp

Now we must part, Heart of my Just one short line— Sweet-heart of heart. I can hear the bu-gle sound-ing with a call so clear! Till I re-mine: I am bat-tling for my coun-try far from home to night. Though foes as-turn My heart will yearn For the girl I leave be-hind me In the home-land dear!

sail, Right must pre-vail: So keep knit-ting still and smil-ing Till we win our fight!

Get this song for your Pianola or Phonograph. Any band or orchestra will gladly play it on request.

Copyright, U.S.A., MCMXVII, by Thompson Pub. Co.
Copyright, Canada, MCMXVII, by Thompson Pub. Co.
International Copyright Secured.

Published as a March for Band and Orchestra. Also for Vocal Orchestra in 3 keys A, B, and C. Price 25c. each.

CHORUS

3

When we wind up "The Watch on the Rhine!" And we grind up the Kais-er's last line. When the war is done and the vic-to-ry won I'll come back to the girl that I call mine! When we wind up "The Watch on the Rhine." We will bind up two hearts that en-twine! Wed-ding bells will be ring-ing "Home Sweet Home" we'll be sing-ing, When we wind up "The Watch on the Rhine!" When we Rhine!" D.C.

p. f

D.C.

SEE IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT ON BACK PAGE

A SONG THAT GRIPS THE HEART

A little child whose daddy is at the front fighting his country's battles, has a dream. The little one imagines daddy is being hurt by some "naughty men"—the enemy. However, on awakening, the father's last letter is remembered, where he said he was coming home soon, and the little dreamer runs down stairs to mother, saying:

"I WANT TO KISS DADDY GOOD NIGHT"

REFRAIN

I want to kiss dad-dy "Good - night!" I want him to tuck me in right! My pray'r have been said, But I can't go to bed 'Till dad - dy has turn'd out the light! I

The melody of this song sings itself. Once you hear it, the song rings in your ears over and over again. The accompaniment while simplicity itself, is full of beautiful chords and harmonies. You'll enjoy playing or singing this song immensely.

"I want to Kiss Daddy Good Night" is by Gordon V. Thompson whose songs have proved an international success. His picture—our trade mark—on a song brands it as one of quality. Some of his other successes are:

When Your Boy Comes Back to You
Khaki
Three Cheers for the Army and Navy (American Edition)

Three Cheers for the Lads of the Navy (Canadian Edition).
When Jack Comes Back
Shadowland

Red Cross Nell and Khaki Jim
That Old Tipperary Tune
Dreaming of Home

Most quality stores will sell you any of these Songs at popular prices. If your dealer cannot supply you, forward $1.00 for any seven copies, or 15c. for one. Postpaid. Quality guaranteed.

TORONTO:

THOMPSON PUBLISHING COMPANY

75 BAY ST.

NEW YORK: W. T. WETMORE, 25 City Hall Place.